

I am very concerned about the expansion of the LPFM stations taking over current FM translator service. I listen to K-LOVE in my community and would be lost without it. The community needs it!
It is the only voice of truth and encouragement to all of us.
Thank you.